Call Committee Update

by Peter Mann

As you know, the Call committee interviewed three candidates on Zoom. In mid-December, the committee selected one pastor to bring to Newport for an evening function and an extensive interview the next morning. After prayerful consideration, the Call Committee unanimously recommended to the Church Council that Atonement Call this Pastor. The Council has accepted that recommendation. An announcement will be made soon regarding a Meet and Greet with the Candidate and a Special Congregational Meeting to vote on Calling a new Pastor.

We at Atonement Lutheran Church reach out with the good news of God's love through Jesus Christ.

As Christ's ministry includes everyone, we, too, welcome persons of any ethnicity, gender identity, race, sexual orientation, marital status, age, economic situation, and physical or mental ability.

We celebrate the gifts each one brings to the life and ministry of this community of faith.

Congregational Meeting

Please mark your calendar and plan on attending our hybrid congregational meeting on Sunday, January 30th in the Sanctuary right after 10:00am service.

Items on the agenda include:

TRIO MUSICORUM MEDICORUM

RETURNS TO ATONEMENT !!!

by Susan Painter

Atonement will joyfully welcome classical musicians Andrew Bonner, piano, Rebecca Reese, cello and Alistair Kok, violin, as they return to Newport in the new year to offer another exciting musical performance. The group is well known to the church, with five previous concerts at Atonement beginning in 2014, all of which generated enthusiastic acclaim from our community.

The group calls itself the "Trio Musicorum Medicorum," because each member has a "regular job" in the medical field in the Portland area. Dr. Kok is a dentist, Dr. Bonner is a naturopath, and Dr. Reese is a physician who practices cranial osteopathy and homeopathy.

The trio will offer live music during the morning church service at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, January 23, 2022 as a preview for their full concert that afternoon at 3:00 p.m. They expect to perform selections by Johann Sebastian Bach, Claude Debussy and Franz Schubert. The trio will ask no admission fee, but will suggest a free-will offering to benefit the Grace Wins Haven shelter. Traci Flower, the shelter's director, will be invited to say a few words about her program at the beginning of the concert.

Proof of vaccination or a negative PCR test for Covid 19 taken at least 72 hours prior will be required to attend the concert. Masks will also be required during the performance.

The Ties That Bind ... by Marian Brown

The Atonement "Ties That Bind" Quilters are "stitch quilts" at the present time. The group is meeting this month on January 17th only. We will gather in the lower meeting room. Morning quilters will start at 9:30am and the afternoon group starts at 1pm.

Everyone is invited! It's a great way to get to know each other as we tie the quilts and share stories.

If you have questions, please contact Marian Brown.
Masks are required.

~The Quilt~

The fabric of the Quilt
is like the fabric of humanity
Not uniform
not homogeneous
not one feel or one look
But different
in color,
in texture
in pattern and shape.
Just as God the Bakerwoman
kneads
not just white rolls
but also pumpernickel,
rye,
whole wheat,
and zucchini bread

So God the Seamstress sews not just three-piece suits
but also lamé and leotards
painters' smocks
denim skirts,
footed pajamas,

The Quilt has many squares
and each square
bears a name
first spoken by God
As a child was called into existence
and loved by God.
And loved by God.
And loved by God.
And the God
who sees the Quilt
who sews the Quilt
who weeps about the Quilt

That God who knew us all before our births
Knows us now.
Knows them now.
Knows us now.
And loves us.
And stitches us
carefully, lovingly,

Book Review by Bonnie Powell

The Musical Life of Gustav Mole is the title of a book I wanted to recommend this month. The author is presented by an organization entitled, Child's Play International.

It's really an educational story of Gustav the Mole and the adventures of his musical family and animal friends. At one point, they even form an orchestra!

It's a charming story I think would be interesting for adults as well as children.

It's actually found in the adult section of the library.

The call number is ER Fic Mey.

A good addition to our library!

Christmas at Samaritan House

by Lauren Jones

I want to say that when we posted our families Christmas "Wish Lists" needs, we were completely overwhelmed with community support. This year we had the kids Wish Lists filled within 1 week, how amazing is that!

You all, once again made this Christmas beyond amazing for our families.

Childish Tendencies Black Friday Toy drive for Samaritan House sold out faster than ever before, it's times like these that makes us all know we are doing amazing things here at Samaritan House with Donors like yourself.

Just listening to the stories of people wanting to adopt a family, not just a child. They want to do it in Memory of someone who passed "We want to Honor them", another "I use to live there and now I want to give back to a family since Samaritan did so much for me and "I want my son to learn this gift of giving", I had so much fun shopping for these kids". It makes a heart full to talk with each and every one of you about Christmas and Blessing our families.
