Adult Forum...Today

Did you know that Martin Luther made some practical suggestions about dealing with poverty some 500 years ago that still ring true today? Join us during the adult forum for "The Forgotten Luther: Advocate for the Poor." Today's topic: "Luther and the Common Chest" by Dr. Carter Linberg.

Midweek Lenten

Midweek Lenten services and soup suppers continue on Wednesday, March 15th. Soup and bread will be served in the Fellowship Hall at 6:00p.m. A signup sheet for soup and/or bread can be found next to the coffee kitchen in the narthex. The vespers service, "The Valleys of Lent" follows at 7:00p.m.

Scrip on Sale...today!

Anne Stangeland will be selling Fred Meyer Habitat for Humanity Scrip today after both services! You will find her at the table closest to the office.

WELCA

We're Part of the Family!

We will continue our study of Galatians at the March WELCA (Women of the ELCA) meeting. Chapters 3 and 4 assure us that we're children of God because of God's gift and promise. Wow! What a deal! Join us for dessert, fellowship and Bible study on Wednesday, March 15th, at 12:30pm in the narthex

Reminder

We have several openings in March and April for Readers, Worship Recorders and Flowers. Signup Sheets located on Bulletin Board in Narthex.

A great thanks to all who volunteer their time in participating in our Sunday service.

Storage Bags

The Parish Life Committee says "thank you" to everyone who brought gallon and/or quart size ziplock bags for the kitchen.

They will come in very handy! (And it's never too late to bring some--we use them a lot.)

Purple for Len

but don't feel blue,
a hue for reflection
and of prayer, too.

It's a celebration of God's love
for me and you.
