Praise the Lord ... by Susan Painter

I met with my friend, Sara Snyder, in her home a few weeks ago. We took a walk through Kenton Park [Portland] and stopped for coffee at one of her favorite places. She is recovering well from her second surgery and has completed her grueling ordeal of many chemotherapy treatments.

She is getting stronger daily and wanted me to send many thanks to the wonderful people at Atonement whose love and prayers have been so enriching for her. She was particularly touched by the prayer shawl, a ministry very new to her and very meaningful.

She hopes to begin working in her law practice again next month. Her friends are celebrating Sara's ongoing recovery with a barbecue the first weekend in September.
